Worship in the Sanctuary • 10:30 AM

Welcome to this Place of Christian Worship

Do not wait for someone else to begin worship. Pray silently for yourself, for those about you, for the poor and the oppressed, for those present, for those who will shortly lead our common worship. Latecomers may enter the Sanctuary during the singing of the first hymn or during the Response to the Assurance. Deacons are available for assistance. Please turn off all cell phones.

Opening Voluntary

Gerre Hancock (1934-2012)

It is the tradition of this congregation to remain silent during the Opening Voluntary as we collectively prepare for worship.

Chiming of the Trinity

The sounding of the chimes, invoking Creator, Son, and Holy Spirit, is an invitation to prepare for worship through a time of silent reflection. Please be respectful of those who are praying.

If Ye Love Me

Thomas Tallis (1505-1585)

If ye love me, keep my commandments,
And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another comforter,
That he may abide with you forever, even the spirit of truth.

God, How Can We Forgive

LEONI

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

Holy God,
We confess that we bow down before other gods;
We have turned our hearts away from you.
Our worship of work and devotion to consumerism
Disorders our love of you and each other.
Forgive us, God,
And mend what is broken,
That we may be one with you.
Amen.

Time for silent prayer.

Scripture Lesson

Deuteronomy 30:15-20

¹⁵See, I have set before you today life and prosperity, death and adversity. ¹⁶If you obey the commandments of the Lord your God that I am commanding you today, by loving the Lord your God, walking in his ways, and observing his commandments, decrees, and ordinances, then you shall live and become numerous, and the Lord your God will bless you in the land that you are entering to possess. ¹⁷But if your heart turns away and you do not hear, but are led astray to bow down to other gods and serve them, ¹⁸I declare to you today that you shall perish; you shall not live long in the land that you are crossing the Jordan to enter and possess. ¹⁹I call heaven and earth to witness against you today that I have set before you life and death, blessings and curses. Choose life so that you and your descendants may live, ²⁰loving the Lord your God, obeying him, and holding fast to him; for that means life to you and length of days, so that you may live in the land that the Lord swore to give to your ancestors, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Matthew 5:21-37

²¹You have heard that it was said to those of ancient times, “You shall not murder”; and “whoever murders shall be liable to judgement.” ²²But I say to you that if you are angry with a brother or sister, you will be liable to judgement; and if you insult a brother or sister, you will be liable to the council; and if you say, “You fool”, you will be liable to the hell of fire. ²³So when you are offering your gift at the altar, if you remember that your brother or sister has something against you, ²⁴leave your gift there before the altar and go; first be reconciled to your brother or sister, and then come and offer your gift. ²⁵Come to terms quickly with your accuser while you are on the way to court with him, or your accuser may hand you over to the judge, and the judge to the guard, and you will be thrown into prison. ²⁶Truly I tell you, you will never get out until you have paid the last penny. ²⁷You have heard that it was said, “You shall not commit adultery.” ²⁸But I say to you that everyone who looks at a woman with lust has already committed adultery with her in his heart. ²⁹If your right eye causes you to sin, tear it out and throw it away; it is better for you to lose one of your members than for your whole body to be thrown into hell. ³⁰And if your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away; it is better for you to lose one of your members than for your whole body to go into hell. ³¹It was also said, “Whoever divorces his wife, let him give her a certificate of divorce.” ³²But I say to you that anyone who divorces his wife, except on the ground of unchastity, causes her to commit adultery; and whoever marries a divorced woman commits adultery. ³³Again, you have heard that it was said to those of ancient times, “You shall not swear falsely, but carry out the vows you have made to the Lord.” ³⁴But I say to you, Do not swear at all, either by heaven, for it is the throne of God, ³⁵or by the earth, for it is his footstool, or by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. ³⁶And do not swear by your head, for you cannot make one hair white or black. ³⁷Let your word be “Yes, Yes” or “No, No”; anything more than this comes from the evil one.

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Invitation to the Offering

Offertory Anthem

Judge Eternal

Gerre Hancock

Judge eternal, throned in splendor, Lord of lords and King of kings,
With thy living fire of judgment purge this land of bitter things;
Solace all its wide dominion with the healing of thy wings.
Still, still the weary folk are pining for the hour that brings release,
And the city's crowded clangor cries aloud for sin to cease;
And the homesteads and the woodlands plead in silence for their peace.
Crown, O God, thine own endeavor; cleave our darkness with thy sword;
Feed all those who do not know thee with the richness of thy word;
Cleanse the body of this nation through the glory of the Lord.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive those who trespass against us.

For thine is the kingdom and the power
And the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

Notes on Today's Music

‡James Nares was an English composer of mostly sacred vocal works, though he also composed for the harpsichord and organ. He began his career as Deputy Organist of St. George's Chapel in Windsor Castle, and was later appointed Organist of York Minster in 1735. In 1756, he became organist and composer to George III at the Chapel Royal. It is believed that Nares was the first person systematically to publish a series of keyboard lessons for students of the piano.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

NEW ADULT BIBLE STUDY OFFERING

Sundays, 9 AM-10:15 AM in the Parish Hall
Starting today, February 16

The Reverend Katelyn Nutter Dowling will lead.

This year's Bible Study will focus on the parables of Jesus. In addition to learning what he likely meant by them, we will explore how our individual lens affects what meaning we ascribe to the parable itself.

Our study will use supplemental readings that take the texts of the parables and turn them upside down, inside out, and more while looking at how class, race, sexual orientation, and more affect the way we read Jesus' parables.

CONFIRMATION CLASS

Confirmands will meet for their first official Spring lesson on February 23 after worship. We will eat together with Dialogue Diner and then will break into our small groups to launch into our confirmation curriculum. As a reminder, the other dates for brunch are: March 1, 8, and 15. Watch for emails about location and pick-up times. Confirmation Sunday is March 22 and we can't wait to celebrate!

NEW TIME FOR DIALOGUE DINER!

We are celebrating a new time for our traditional meal of fellowship on Sundays called "Dialogue Diner." We will now meet AFTER worship two Sundays per month. On February 23, join us for food and fellowship in Parish Hall, Noon until 1 PM. Students grade 6-12 are welcome.

SPIRITUAL LIFE

Sundays, 9 AM-10:15 AM in the Heritage Room

February 16

Soul Making Explorations

Presenter: The Reverend Dr. Tom Yorty

This topic is inspired by Tom Yorty's "Soul Making: a Memoir and Reflection" in Traffic Magazine. Tom will reflect on his Lilly Sabbatical and some of the unexpected and soul-making experiences he encountered as he followed "bread crumbs" on a road that led to deepening self-discovery—a road where he wrote the poem This Time, where he encountered his alcoholic father and "the thing I wish most had not happened." Those "bread crumbs" led Tom to a place "where we learn from the things we wish most had not happened but discover one day we are grateful for."

February 23

Soul Making Explorations

As a group, we will reflect on Tom Yorty's article in Traffic Magazine, "Soul Making: a Memoir and Reflection." We will explore where we have followed "bread crumbs" in our lives and what we experienced as a result. We will also explore how to notice and respond to them, even when they take us off our scheduled paths.

WOW LUNCHTIME BIBLE STUDY

Monday, March 16

1 PM-2:30 PM in the Case Library

The Women of Westminster invite you to a Brown Bag Lunchtime Bible study on the 3rd Monday of each month. This year we will explore the Horizons Bible study, Love Carved in Stone: A Fresh Look at the Ten Commandments. Each lesson begins with an exploration of one of the Ten Words in its biblical context. From there, we consider a moment from Jesus' life that shows us how he lived out that Word. We then consider the Word for our own lives and contexts. There will be a nominal fee for the book.

Psalm 119:1-8

We will distribute the elements of communion today by intinction – simply take the bread and dip it in the cup. It is appropriate to say “Amen” or “Thanks be to God” when receiving the bread and the cup as they are gifts of God for the people of God. All of the bread distributed is gluten free. Please take the center aisle to the communion station, receive the elements, and return to your seat by a side aisle. If you are unable to receive the elements by coming forward to the elders, please raise your hand for the roving elder to come to your pew to serve the bread and wine.
